Observance of World Day Against Child Labour 2025

Organized by the Department of Sociology in collaboration with IQAC, BCC

Date: 12th June 2025

Time: 1:00 PM

Venue: Smart Room, BCC

The Department of Sociology, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), BCC, observed the World Day Against Child Labour 2024 on 12th June 2025 at 1:00 PM in the Smart Room, BCC. The observance was aimed at raising awareness among students about the issues of child labour, its impact on society, and the need for collective action to eradicate it.

The programme began with the host, Mr./Ms. Paulamkhual (4th Semester), who warmly welcomed the gathering and introduced the significance of the day.

The Welcome Address was delivered by Ms. Kimneiting Haokip, Head of Department of Sociology, who highlighted the importance of sensitizing students on social issues such as child labour and the responsibility of youth in building a just society.

The Keynote Address was delivered by Dr. Kh. Sonia Monica, DFWO, Churachandpur, who shared valuable insights on the causes and consequences of child labour, existing legal frameworks, and the role of communities and institutions in preventing child exploitation. Her speech provided both statistical insights and human stories that deeply engaged the audience.

The programme concluded with a Vote of Thanks by Ms. Kimngaihlun, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, who expressed gratitude to the guest speaker, faculty members, students, and the organizing committee for making the event successful.

The observance created awareness among students about the seriousness of child labour and the urgent need to address it. The interactive session helped participants reflect on their role as responsible citizens in combating this social evil.
